

PRIVACY POLICY

1. Subject and Acceptance

FINALOGIC admits its responsibility to protect all user data, which are collected by FanPlay and/or any other technology connected to FanPlay, to store it with due diligence, and to take all measures required to protect the user data and user information from misuse.

FINALOGIC collects, processes, and uses personal data only in accordance with the requirements as defined in the Austrian Data Protection Act (DSG 2000).

This Privacy Policy is part of the commitment of FINALOGIC to protect user data. It is issued to present the collection, the processing, the usage and the storage methods and processes for data collected by FINALOGIC based on the use of FanPlay.

Any service offered by FINALOGIC is subject to this Privacy Policy, including – but not limited to – the use of FanPlay, the registration for FanPlay, the use of all websites connected to FanPlay including the product calculator as offered on the website <https://www.fanplay.eu/>, and all websites of FINALOGIC (www.finalogic.at)

This Privacy Policy does not apply to third party websites linked to FINALOGIC's websites.

FINALOGIC reserves the right to alter / amend / change, etc. this Privacy Policy at any time and at its sole discretion. The up-to-date-version can be downloaded from www.finalogic.at. It is the sole responsibility of the user to check the Privacy Policy regularly for any alterations / amendments / changes, etc.

In case, the Privacy Policy is altered / amended / changed, etc. the user may rescind his acceptance. In this case, FINALOGIC is entitled to exclude the user from the use of the relevant service. By continuing to use the service, the user accepts the alteration / amendment / change of the Privacy Policy.

By using the services of FINALOGIC, or any part of the services offered by FINALOGIC, by using a website of FINALOGIC, or the App of FanPlay, the user declares to have read and understood, and accepts this Privacy Policy.

2. Use of FINALOGIC's websites

FINALOGIC uses Google Analytics to register the hits on its websites. Any hit on any of FINALOGIC's websites, and any file call-up will be recorded. This data will be used for internal, system related statistics and is subject to the statutory record-keeping period.

The following data will be recorded: name of the called-up file, date and time of the call, data volume, confirmation of the successful call, web browser, IP-address of the calling device.

To ease the use of its websites, FINALOGIC will use Cookies. Cookies are text files, which enables the recognition of the user. The user can manage the installation of cookies by means of the relevant settings of his browser software.

3. Use of any services of FINALOGIC

To use any services of FINALOGIC (like for example FanPlay of the product calculator for FanPlay) the user is requested to register. This registration includes personal data (name, gender, date of birth, address, email address, etc.).

Any personal data will be collected for the use of the services of FINALOGIC only. Personal data will not be transferred and/or disclosed to third parties, except for (a) it is essential to the functionality of the service of FINALOGIC, and (b) the user accepted the data transfer / disclosure. The user has the right to revoke this acceptance at any time, provided it is done in writing.

4. Use of FanPlay

Additionally to the personal data collected upon registration for FanPlay, other data may be collected depending on the service module of FanPlay used by the user. This data related to the use of the relevant service module, and may include – but not limited to – data about the purchase of products and services, voucher codes, use of the electronic purse, etc.

This data will be collected and stored exclusively by FINALOGIC, and only used for the evaluation of the use of the services of FINALOGIC.

5. Data Protection by FINALOGIC

FINALOGIC uses various security systems to protect the stored data against loss and misuse.

FINALOGIC undertakes all “state-of-the-art”-precautions to protect the stored data, including but not limited to up-to-date security software, coding standards, and cryptographic methods. Despite these safety precautions, FINALOGIC cannot warrant the loss of data or misuse may not happen. Thus, FINALOGIC disclaims any liability for any kind of data loss and/or misuse if this data loss and/or misuse is caused by any third party beyond the sphere of responsibility of FINALOGIC.

FINALOGIC will not transfer and/or disclose any user data, whether personal data or not, to any third party, except for (a) it is essential to the functionality of the service of FINALOGIC, and (b) the user accepted the data transfer / disclosure. In addition, FINALOGIC may be obliged by law to transfer and/or disclose user data to governmental authorities. The transfer and/or disclosure of user data based on a legal obligation of FINALOGIC is not subject to the permission of the user.

6. Right of Access, Correction and Deletion of Data

The user has the right of access, correction and deletion of data subject to the conditions of the Austrian Data Protection Act (DSG 2000).

The user has to send the request for access, correction or deletion to the following email-address: office@finalogic.at .

The data collected by FINALOGIC may be essential to the use of the relevant service of FINALOGIC. If the user requires deletion of data relating to him, and if this data is essential to the use of a service of FINALOGIC, the functionality of the relevant service may be reduced or even non-functional. In this case, FINALOGIC disclaims any liability for any loss and/or damage caused by the reduced functionality or the non-functionality. Furthermore, any reduced functionality or even non-functionality caused by the deletion of any stored data upon the user's request shall not form any title to extraordinary termination of the service agreement between the user and FINALOGIC.
